

NUR 332: Mental Health Nursing Practice

Nursing theory and practice in holistic care of individuals requiring primary, secondary, or tertiary nursing interventions related to psychological and sociocultural stressors. Focuses on adolescents and adults who are confronting selected mental health stressors. Three classroom and three clinical laboratory hours per week.

Credits: Credits 4

Class Hours: Class Hours
3

Prerequisites:

Prerequisites

“C” or higher in NUR 301, NUR 303, NUR 311, and NUR 313

Semester Offered:

Semester Offered

Offered fall and spring semesters.