

NUR 430: Critical Care Nursing Practice

Nursing theory and practice in holistic care of critically ill patients and their families requiring secondary and/or tertiary nursing interventions. Focuses on life-threatening stressors encountered by individuals and their families. Three classroom and three clinical laboratory hours per week.

Credits: Credits 4

Class Hours: Class Hours

3

Prerequisites:

Prerequisites

“C” or higher in NUR 401, NUR 411, NUR 413, and NUR 415

Semester Offered:

Semester Offered

Offered fall and spring semesters.