

NUR 432: Nursing Practice with Diverse Populations & Settings

Nursing theory and practice in holistic care of groups and populations requiring primary, secondary, or tertiary nursing interventions. Focuses on care delivery in diverse settings in the community, including homes, clinics, schools, and/or industry. Three classroom and three clinical laboratory hours per week.

Credits: Credits 4

Notes:

Notes

PCEN-Professional Civic Engagement

Class Hours: Class Hours

3

Prerequisites:

Prerequisites

“C” or higher in NUR 401, NUR 411, NUR 413, and NUR 415

Semester Offered:

Semester Offered

Offered fall and spring semesters.