

PHE 242: Research and Information Technology in Sport and Physical Education

Designed for students to learn and understand research and information technology in sport and physical education. Students will participate in the use of information technology. An introduction to basic research techniques will be demonstrated.

Credits: Credits 3

Semester Offered:

Semester Offered

Offered every semester.

Core Tags:

Core Tags

WI