

PSC 228: Introduction to Public and Non-Profit Administration

The process of policy formulation and implementation, theories of organization, personnel administration, financial administration, and administrative responsibility in public administration and non-profit organizations. LCMC PAM I Introduction to Public Administration may substitute for this course when under seven students are registered for a semester.

Credits: Credits 3

Semester Offered:

Semester Offered

Offered spring semesters, odd numbered years.