

PSC 340: Public and Non-Profit Personnel Management

This course is designed as a study of the fundamental principles of personnel organization and administration in public and non-profit organizations at the local, state, federal, and, in the case of select non-profit organizations, the international level.

Credits: Credits 3

Prerequisites:

Prerequisites

PSC 222 or PSC 228

Semester Offered:

Semester Offered

Offered fall semesters, odd numbered years.