

REL 111: Hebrew Scriptures

This course provides an overview of the social and historical context of the ancient Israelite society (from the age of the Patriarchs to the emergence of Second Temple Judaism), the literary character of the scriptures it produced and the theological content of those scriptures.

Credits: Credits 3

Semester Offered:

Semester Offered

Offered at departmental discretion.