

REL 203: From the Apostles to the Reformers (History of Christianity I; ca. 100-ca. 1550)

This course examines the institutional, intellectual, and social developments in the history of Christianity from its beginnings to the Reformation. Issues such as the relationship between church and state, theology and philosophy, piety and culture will be traced and analyzed in the wider context of the history of the Mediterranean and Western Worlds from later antiquity to the Reformation. This course may be taken by History Majors to complete degree requirements in the field of History.

Credits: Credits 3

Semester Offered:

Semester Offered

Offered at departmental discretion.

Core Tags:

Core Tags

GL