

RES 331: Cardiopulmonary Nutritional Care

A review of the nutritional needs, fluids and electrolyte balances of the cardiopulmonary patient. Emphasis will be placed on the nutritional components associated with various pathophysiological states associated with acute and chronic needs.

Credits: Credits 3