

SPE 310: Ethical & Strategic Speaking

Ethical & Strategic Speaking continues the development of effective oral and written communication skills through engagement in activities such as: debate, interview communication, and/or other oral communication activities. Ethical theories will be defined, discussed, and applied to public and strategic speaking. A laptop computer is required. Recommended for Communications, Political Science, Business Administration, Religion, and Teacher Education majors. Recommended for Speech minors.

Credits: Credits 3

Prerequisites:

Prerequisite Courses

SPE 110

Semester Offered:

Semester Offered

Offered spring semester, even-numbered years.