

Frequency of Course Offerings

The frequency with which each course is offered is stated in the description of each course. Courses not required for the major, minor, or the Core Curriculum may be offered upon consultation with the department chair and advisor. The courses are designated as “Offered at departmental discretion.”