

Explanation of Course Label

Each course is labeled with a prefix designating the course type or discipline (ENG - English), a number designating the course level (113 - course typically taken by freshmen), the name of the course (Freshman Composition and Introduction to Literature and Research), and a number in parentheses (3) designating the number of semester hours credit the course awards.