

SSC 402: Capstone

A capstone course in which students design and conduct original social science studies using an appropriate methodology. A formal presentation of results will be presented before the instructor and other class members in the form of presentations and a written report. Open to juniors and seniors only. Required for Political Science, Psychology, and Sociology majors and concentrations.

Credits: Credits 3

Notes:

Notes

PCOM for PSY, SOC, and PSC majors.

PCEN for PSY majors.

Prerequisites:

Prerequisites

SSC 220, SSC 230/MAT 200 (or as a Co-requisite) & one of the following sets: (PSY 120), (PSC 121, 225), or (SOC 101).

Semester Offered:

Semester Offered

Offered Spring and Fall Semester.