

SCM 320: Supply Chain Management Technologies

This online course looks at the major relevant supply chain technologies and systems that are employed in best-in-class supply chain organizations. Students will gain a basic understanding of how information flows throughout the supply chain, how supply chain systems work, and how they make the supply chain more efficient and effective. This online class has optional live sessions.

Credits: Credits 3

Prerequisites:

Prerequisite Courses

SCM 220

SCM 301

Semester Offered:

Semester Offered

Offered at department discretion