

ACC 441: Government and Not-for-Profit Accounting

A study of the unique aspects for governmental and nonprofit entities. This course emphasizes the conceptual differences between reporting for business and non-business organizations and the application of appropriate accounting principles for nonbusiness accounting venues.

Credits: Credits 3

Prerequisites:

Prerequisite Courses

ACC 312