

SML 521: Finance for Leaders

Focuses on economic and financial principles required to operate a business. Principles are applied to quantitatively analyze financial statements. Also, managerial decision-making applications will be presented from the point of view of a firm (microeconomics).

Credits: Credits 3