

ACC 432: Individual Income Tax

An in-depth study of personal income taxation including filing methods, exemptions, deductions, and tax minimization strategies. Students will be required to evaluate and prepare income taxes using a variety of tax scenarios. This course prepares students for service learning opportunities such as the IRS Volunteer Income Tax Assistance (VITA) program.

Credits: Credits 3

Prerequisites:

Prerequisite Courses

ACC 210

Prerequisites

To enroll in ACC 432, students must have earned a grade of "A" in ACC 210 or ACC 311.