

BUA 362: Operations and Supply Chain Management

A study of the operations management in tangible manufacturing and intangible service offering based organizations and supply chains within a total quality management framework. Includes inventory and materials management, project planning and management, process design and management, quality and capacity management, and supply chain logistics analysis.

Credits: Credits 3

Prerequisites:

Prerequisites

ACC 220, ECO 220, MAT 200, or SSC 230

Semester Offered:

Semester Offered

Offered at departmental discretion.