

COL 310 : Preparing for Internships or Graduate School

This course is designed for juniors. Its purpose is to prepare students for internships or applying to graduate schools. Students will prepare resumes, participate in mock interviews, prepare for pre-employment, and admission testing.

Credits 1

Semester Offered

Offered at departmental discretion.