

EDU 228: Foundations of Literacy

A study of the definition and various forms of literacy, how literacies are developed as a person lives life and becomes educated in various ways, including schooling. The theme of Literacy/Reading and Writing is stressed throughout every course activity as students learn how to facilitate the literacy development of themselves and others. By extending and refining their understanding of reading and writing processes and development; by providing opportunities to implement effective reading and writing strategies; and by encouraging participants to become reflective decision-makers as consumers and teachers of literacy. Secondary Read to Succeed course.

Credits: Credits 3

Semester Offered:

Semester Offered

Offered fall and spring semesters.

Core Tags:

Core Tags

WI