

GPD 264: History of Graphic Design

A slide and lecture introduction to the history of graphic design. This class will cover graphic design starting with the invention of writing, the invention of the printing press to graphic design in the age of information. This course will be conducted in chronological order.

Credits: Credits 3

Semester Offered:

Semester Offered

Offered spring semester, even-numbered years.

Core Tags:

Core Tags

GL