

ITE 200 : Foundation of Global Leadership

Foundational principles and practices of individual and organizational leadership in a global context from integrated moral, technical and social perspective. Emphasis on developing integrity, valuing leveraging diversity, acquiring and applying leadership skills. [This course is offered through the RIZE Education Consortium]

Credits 3

Prerequisites

Sophomore Standing