

MUS 141: History of American Music

A study of the development of American music beginning with Native American music and then progressing from Colonial music to contemporary American music. The first half of the course will cover classical and folk music, while the second half will examine jazz, rock, and popular music styles. This course may be team taught by faculty within the music department.

Credits: Credits 3

Semester Offered:

Semester Offered

Offered spring semester, odd numbered years.

Core Tags:

Core Tags

HF