

NUR 320: Nursing Research and Evidence-Based Practice

An introduction to nursing research and evidence-based nursing practice, building on the student's knowledge of the scientific process, mathematical and statistical concepts, and nursing care. Emphasizes the generalist nursing roles of identifier of practice problems for study, data collector, and knowledgeable consumer of nursing research.

Credits: Credits 3

Class Hours: Class Hours

3

Prerequisites:

Prerequisites

"C" or higher in NUR 301, NUR 303, NUR 311, and NUR 313

Semester Offered:

Semester Offered

Offered fall and spring semesters.