

Program Learning Outcomes (PLOs)

All academic programs Newberry College must have program learning outcomes to be assessed on a yearly basis. The purpose of such an assessment is to determine the efficacy of the learning within each program as achieved by students through student learning outcomes (SLOs) specific to each course. These SLOs must align with the PLOs. SLOs are provided in various course syllabi, while PLOs are provided in the catalog and in many syllabi.